v.)	OPINION and ORDER

Defendant.)
_____)

This matter is before the court on Defendant's Motion to compel the Government to file a Rule 35 motion. ECF No. 262. Defendant contends that he should receive a reduction in his sentence because information he allegedly provided in a proffer statement was included in the Presentence Report (PSR) of his co-defendant, Dwayne Roderick Ross.

Defendant's contention is in error. The only mention of Defendant in his co-defendant's PSR is in the offense conduct section, which lays out the underlying circumstances of the offense.

Defendant's motion is, therefore, denied.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
